Governor Brings Order Out of Chaos in the Legislature.

Special Session Completes Work for Which It Was Called and Will Adjourn at Noon Today When Supplementary Meeting Will Begin to Approve Other San Francisco Charter Amendments.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—Gov. Gillett today took a hand in the work of the Legislature and quickly brought order out of chaos. Evidently fearing that the legislative body would accomplish nothing in the way of affording relief to the courts of justice by empowering them to transact business on special holidays, and that the purpose of summoning an extra session would be in part at least defeated, he summoned a subcommittee from the Judiciary Committee of each house to confer with him this afternoon.

The committee met the Governor in his office at 4 o'clock, and within half an hour they came to an agreement on necessary amendments to the statutes which will throw open the doors of the courts. The Governor was particularly that the measure be broad enough to permit grand juries to make investigations of crimes and return indictments on holidays. He laid great stress upon the importance of that. Previous to the conference with the Governor, the Senate Judiciary Committee had labored all day. Senators Caminetti, Curtin, Miller and Willis as subcommittee finally succeeded in drawing up a measure that seemed to overcome all objections. It was this measure which was finally agreed upon, with some modifications suggested by the subcommittee from the Assembly.

The bills, as agreed upon and passed by both houses tonight, create "special holidays," empower the Governor to call one or any consecutive number of days special holidays, and amend section 125 of the Code of Civil Procedure to provide that "on all special holidays the courts of this State shall be open for the transaction of any and all judicial business except trial of cases."

The measures are to go into effect at midnight, December 25. The two subcommittees also agreed to the minor change in the Tax Delinquency Bill, as suggested by the Governor and Controller Nye, enabling County Treasurers to make settlement with the State the first week in January for such sums as they have on hand.

The Governor also held a conference with the San Francisco delegations from both houses, and then announced that he would call a supplementary session to convene not later than 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, if the work of the present session is finished by that time, for the ratification of the remaining sixteen amendments to the San Francisco charter, not included in the present charter.

HIG DAY'S BUSINESS.
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—The Legislature got down to business today and practically enacted all the legislation for which the extra session was called.

Both houses held three sessions, the night session lasting until after midnight. Gov. Gillett having announced that he would call another extra session if the present session adjourns sine die at noon tomorrow. The proclamation is being printed tonight and will be ready for the Governor's signature tomorrow.

Those measures were finally passed today. The resolution calling for the appointment of a legislative commission to investigate the banks, banking methods and laws. The Isala Creek harbor improvement bill. The tax delinquency bills extending the time for payment of taxes until the last Monday in January. The measures appropriating $1000 for the Governor's contingent expenses, transferring $4000 from the general fund to the State Printer's fund, and $1700 for the payment of the State Printer's fund.

National Guard under arms during the San Francisco street car strike, and four measures amending the statutes empowering courts of justice to be open and perform judicial acts on special holidays.

The Senate adopted a resolution fixing the time for adjournment "sine die" at 12 o'clock tomorrow noon. At 12:30 o'clock the Senate adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The Assembly was in session until nearly 1 o'clock.

The work of approving the remaining San Francisco charter amendments will not occupy more than an hour or two. The supplementary session should adjourn before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and by midnight the capital will be bare of legislators.

COMMISSION.

BANK INQUIRY IS ORDERED.

BOTH HOUSES ADOPT CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Bitter Opposition in Assembly to Appointment of Special Legislative Commission to Investigate Banking Institutions and Laws of State.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—The Assembly tonight adopted the Senate substitute for Senator Leavitt's concurrent resolution calling for the appointment of a special legislative commission to investigate the banks and banking methods in this State, which was adopted by the Senate today.

The resolution was bitterly fought on the floor of the lower house for three hours. The opposition was led by Assemblyman John Drew and Assemblyman Grove L. Johnson, while Stanton, Wyatt and Coghlan urged the necessity of such an investigation and fought the matter to a successful conclusion.

Stanton of Los Angeles made a strong argument for the measure, which was replied to by John Drew of Fresno, who offered an amendment to instruct the Bank Commissioners to carry out the provisions of the resolution instead of appointing a legislative commission.

Mr. Drew contended that it was not advisable nor to the best interests of the State to make such an investigation, and quoted many bankers to that effect. He argued that it would destroy whatever confidence remained in the banks.

IN THE UPPER HOUSE.
Coghlan made a strong plea for the resolution and declared that the conditions existing were such that there is demand for an investigation of banking methods. Davis ventured the opinion "that nothing would do more damage than this incendiary populist legislation."

"If the banks go down, everything will go with them," said he. "Can you create more distrust than already exists?" asked Stanton.

"Yes, by such an investigation," replied Davis. Wyatt declared that it was not intended to be a "ripper investigation," nor for the purpose of exposing banks, but for the purpose of improving the banking laws, which were admittedly imperfect. He maintained that no honest bank had anything to fear, and that such an investigation would establish, not destroy, confidence in banks.

Grove L. Johnson attempted to amend the resolution by restricting the committee to the investigation of banking laws only. His amendment was voted down. Eshleman, Cogswell and Held also opposed it.

In the upper house this afternoon, Senator Anderson endeavored to have his resolution substituted for Leavitt's measure, but he was defeated. Anderson's resolution called for a committee of but one member of each house, empowered only to subpoena the Bank Commissioners and through them learn the condition and methods of the banks. Leavitt's measure calls for a committee of three Senators and three Assemblymen, with power to investigate the banking institutions and corporations.

Senator Anderson was opposed to probing the inside affairs of banks, he said, because it would excite the people more and make conditions worse. He declared that the banks were never in better condition than today, and that the fault lay in the fact that the people had lost confidence in them. "The banks are all right, and the people are all wrong," said he.

ASK PRESIDENT TO RUN AGAIN.

Resolution Introduced in Assembly Will Come up for Discussion Today.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—Assemblyman Guy W. Smith, of Santa Clara county, today introduced in the lower house of the Legislature, convened in extraordinary session, a resolution asking President Roosevelt to reconsider his decision not to become a candidate for reelection. The resolution was ordered printed in the Assembly Journal and will come up for a discussion tomorrow. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, this nation has enjoyed an unprecedented era of prosperity, and

"Whereas, we believe the confidence reposed in our worthy President has in a large measure been responsible for this prosperity, and

"Whereas, we believe the announcement by President Roosevelt that he is a candidate for reelection would be the means of bringing order out of the present unsettled conditions, be it, therefore,

"Resolved, That the thirty-seventh session of the Assembly of the California State Legislature assembled in extraordinary session, requests President Roosevelt to reconsider his decision and become a candidate for reelection, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the President."

EMOTIONAL.

BROWN WROTE OF HIS LOVE.

MRS. BRADLEY LISTENS EAGERLY TO READING OF LETTERS.

Defense in Murder Trial Nearly Finished With the Exception of Several Affidavits to Whom Will Be Submitted Hypothetical Question of Thirteen Thousand Words.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Testimony tending to show Mrs. Annie M. Bradley was insane to the extent of being irresponsible when she shot former Senator Arthur Brown of Utah, due to her mistreatment of her, was given at today's session of her trial.

Witnesses said she was emotional to the verge of being irrational. When court adjourned today until Monday, the defense was nearly finished, with the exception of the experts. Several eminent alienists have volunteered for this service, although no one has understood that they be called early next week. The hypothetical question which will be submitted to them has been prepared. It contains 13,000 words.

The reading of Brown's letters to Mrs. Bradley furnished the most interesting incident of the day. They were filled with mingled protestations of love and reproaches for interest in other men, and they stirred Mrs. Bradley to deep emotion. She listened eagerly to the reading, and closing her eyes seemed clearly lost in the memories they awakened.

The defendant was not in a buoyant mood during the day. Her manner was dejected, her speech infrequent and her face pale. Evidently there had been a reaction after the confusion yesterday of her testimony. She looked as if she had had a sleepless night.

She was not so depressed, however, that she could not laugh over the testimony of her uncle, Lyman H. Shrewsbury, postmaster at Bonny Doon, Cal., indicating her aunt had been jealous of him. Mr. Shrewsbury testified to insanity in the family. He has no doubt his wife had been insane, and he said another sister of Mrs. Bradley's mother, a Mrs. Ryan, had been sent to an asylum. He also said Mrs. Bradley's maternal grandfather had been insane in his mind.

Miss Anna Bischof, a teacher of Chicago, corroborated the testimony of Mr. Shrewsbury concerning the eccentric conduct of Mrs. Ryan. The witness had lived at Mrs. Ryan's house three years.

Judge H. P. Henderson, former law partner of Senator Brown, testified that the statement acknowledging the children by Mrs. Bradley was not in Brown's ordinary handwriting, but had been written by him.

He and several other Salt Lake witnesses said Mrs. Bradley's reputation for peace and good order was good. Maj. Samuel Krong, recalled to the stand and questioned regarding Mrs. Bradley's state of mind during his several conversations with her, said she was extremely agitated. He said that Mrs. Bradley's admiration of Brown amounted almost to idolatry. He had regarded her as on the verge of mental collapse. She seemed about to lose control of herself, "and," added Mr. Krong, "I said at the time that I would not be surprised at anything she might do."

ARTIST'S IDEAL ROBBED OF BEAUTY BY FEVER.

Mrs. Phillip Boileau, "The Boileau Girl," wife and model of the artist whose fame and fortune she made. He has vowed to abandon his art if she does not recover from her present critical illness.

FAMOUS BEAUTY IS NEAR DEATH.

LITTLE HOPE FOR MRS. BOILEAU'S RECOVERY.

Life of Woman Who Became Noted Through Drawings by Her Husband Is Being Consumed by Fever, While Artist Sits by Her Bedside and Refuses to Be Consoled.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There was no change today in the condition of Mrs. Phillip Boileau, and little hope of recovery is entertained by her physicians.

Suffering from typhoid fever, a veritable shadow of her former self, and robbed of the delicate beauty that had made her husband, whose model she was, famous, Mrs. Boileau has been lying near death for several days in her Fifth-avenue home.

Sitting constantly by the side of his bride of only a few weeks, Boileau refuses to be consoled. He refuses food unless it is forced upon him and he has not slept for days. The half-finished paintings in his studio next door are deserted and he gives no thought to the work about which he was so enthusiastic only a few weeks ago. Boileau constantly gazes into the faded face of the woman who lies ill, perhaps dying, in the studio home he prepared for her when he married his ideal model on October 9 of this year.

Mr. Boileau's rat wife died some years ago, after a short wedded life. He grieved for her sincerely, and another woman had little interest for him, except as paid models, until he met Emily Gilbert, six months ago. He was studying dramatic art at a school in Carnegie Hall when she first began to pose for the artist. Soon she became known as the "Boileau Girl."

"From the moment I first met her I knew that here was the face of which I had dreamed," said Boileau.

GOVERNMENT ISSUE ALREADY SUCCESS SAYS CORTELYOU.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This statement was issued by the Secretary of the Treasury this evening:

"Subscriptions to the 3 per cent. certificates are being received in large numbers and the issue is already a very successful one. In addition to subscriptions from individuals many of the national bank depositors in the crop-moving sections of the South and West are availing themselves of the opportunity to purchase these certificates, receive a large portion of the proceeds as a deposit upon approved securities and increase their circulation to the amount of the registered certificates in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury.

"The beneficial results of this increase in circulation will be promptly felt at points where it will be most helpful and the government will be enabled to make its collections and expenditures in such a manner as not to be a disturbing factor in business operations."

It has been decided by the Treasury Department that where banks bid for the certificates on indebtedness, 25 per cent. of the amount must be paid into the United States Treasury in cash. The 75 per cent. will be left in the bank buying the certificates as a government deposit if the bank can put up security approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

TO FORCE PAYMENT.

Western Banks May Invoke Law.

Clamoring for Balances from Their Depositors in New York.

Have More Than Five Hundred Millions Tied Up and Need It.

Some of Them Must Get What Is Due, or Go Out of Business.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bankers outside of New York, unable to secure money due them from banks in this city, have sent personal representatives here to take any legal steps necessary to force action.

New York banks owe banks scattered all over the country, principally the big industrial centers, more than $200,000,000. In the West and South many banks have reached a stage where they are actually dependent upon the money they have deposited in New York to continue doing business.

Following the lead of the New York clearinghouse, banks in Chicago, St. Louis and many small reserve centers have already suspended payment in currency, but the time has come when the country banks are growing these reserve banks for at least a partial settlement in currency.

ONE BANK'S FLIGHT.

A particular instance is a certain bank in Kansas City, which is in the verge of absolute suspension unless it can secure a part of the large balance New York banks owe to it.

The officers of this bank, in consultation with all the other banks of Kansas City, have employed a special representative to visit New York and look over the situation.

"We have a balance of $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in New York banks," explained this representative today to several financial men in Wall street. "Our country banks in Western, Missouri and Eastern Kansas and Nebraska almost without exception depend upon the Kansas City reserve institutions, with which they carry their balances, for a supply of currency. Owing to our inability to draw on New York, we have been compelled to shut off the supply, and have reduced our country bankers to a state where they are keeping open only by the forbearance of their depositors."

THIS CONDITION GENERAL.

The breaking down of the banking system as applied to Kansas City simply illustrates a condition that is general throughout the country. Even the most conservative bankers here do not see any immediate road out of the difficulty, as there is not an industrial center in the country that is not clamoring for its New York balance, notwithstanding the government's $150,000,000 plan of relief by use of public credit for that amount.

Since August 22 there has been shipped from New York to outside banks, through the United States Treasury, $20,000,000, but there is still an approximate balance of more than $200,000,000 due from New York City banking institutions to other banks, principally of the West and South.

To draw down a portion of its New York balance in currency is the present earnest endeavor of every bank in the country having funds here. To do that is the purpose of the local clearinghouse banks, and each upon cash in the money market is the consequence. This squabble has thoroughly demoralized domestic exchange.

LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

The law of checks, notes and banks is as follows:

When the depositor places money in a bank the bank puts the amount as deposited to the depositor's credit, and the money becomes the property of the bank and the relation of debtor and creditor is created. The bank implicitly agrees to repay the amount to the depositor or the depositor's order when called upon, and if it refuses or fails so to do, it becomes liable to the depositor for all loss the depositor may suffer by such refusal.

STOP BUYING MONEY.

NO MORE HOARDS IN HIDING.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Zimmerman and Forsyth, whose offices at No. 11 Wall street have been filled every day with currency sellers, announced today that they would cease to buy currency after this week.

A member of the firm said that the reason for withdrawing from what has been believed to be a highly profitable form of trading was that no further hoarded money seemed to be coming out, and the firm did not want to encourage any riding of banks by depositors who, without currency to sell at a premium.

SENATORS' AGES AND SERVICE.

INSTANCES OF CHANGED DESIRE FOR MEMBERSHIP.
In Olden Times Senators Were Wont to Resign Their Seats to Accept Other Responsibilities—Now the Senatorial Toga is Held Onto as Long as Possible.

(Seattle Times.) Had Dr. Oiler's famous recommendations regarding men who had reached the age of 60 years been taken seriously, the United States Senate would today be without some of the brainiest men who have ever graced its halls. Nearly one-half of the Senators have passed middle age; fourteen are more than three score and ten, and about six of these are above 75. Of the twelve Senators from the New England States, five are septuagenarians. Although the Senate is the most influential and the hardest worked legislative body in the country, yet at least twenty of its members have served more than two terms, and most of these veterans are men who long ago passed the chloroform limit set by Oiler upon the period of man's usefulness.

William Boyd Allison of Iowa has been in Congress forty-two years, beginning his career at the time of the second inauguration of Abraham Lincoln. Of these forty-two years, thirty-four have been spent in the Senate, and he has become so fascinated with the life that he has announced his desire to serve another term. His record of senatorial service is at present unequalled, and should he serve another full term, he will have held his seat for forty-two years, and have been in Congress a full half century.

In the first half of the last century four terms were exceedingly rare. Although a striking exception to the short term record was the case of Thomas H. Benton, who occupied a

In Olden Times Senators Were Wont to Resign Their Seats to Accept Other Responsibilities—Now the Senatorial Toga is Held Onto as Long as Possible.

(Seattle Times.) Had Dr. Oiler's famous recommendations regarding men who had reached the age of 60 years been taken seriously, the United States Senate would today be without some of the brainiest men who have ever graced its halls. Nearly one-half of the Senators have passed middle age; fourteen are more than three score and ten, and about six of these are above 75. Of the twelve Senators from the New England States, five are septuagenarians. Although the Senate is the most influential and the hardest worked legislative body in the country, yet at least twenty of its members have served more than two terms, and most of these veterans are men who long ago passed the chloroform limit set by Oiler upon the period of man's usefulness.

William Boyd Allison of Iowa has been in Congress forty-two years, beginning his career at the time of the second inauguration of Abraham Lincoln. Of these forty-two years, thirty-four have been spent in the Senate, and he has become so fascinated with the life that he has announced his desire to serve another term. His record of senatorial service is at present unequalled, and should he serve another full term, he will have held his seat for forty-two years, and have been in Congress a full half century.

In the first half of the last century four terms were exceedingly rare. Although a striking exception to the short term record was the case of Thomas H. Benton, who occupied a

LUMBERMEN COMPLAIN.
They Make Emphatic Charge of Discrimination Against Northern Pacific Road.

(TACOMA (Wash.) Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Discrimination against lumber manufacturers on Grays Harbor is charged against the Northern Pacific in the plainest manner by C. F. White, manager of the Grays Harbor Commercial Company at Cosmopolis. White is chairman of the Executive Committee of the lumber and shingle manufacturers' organizations. He says:

"The Northern Pacific is constantly hauling empty box cars out of Grays Harbor town, while we have orders for lumber from points outside the State more than twelve months old, and the Northern Pacific and Great Northern officials say there is no embargo against Washington mill products. To all intents and purposes there is scarcely a more effective embargo than that which results from the persistent and continued refusal of the Northern Pacific to furnish cars for lumber and shingles."

Cars are brought to Grays Harbor points loaded with merchandise from the East. They are emptied and then hatched to train for Seattle or Tacoma, while mill men are forced to sit idle and watch orders for lumber pile up from the East."

land resigned to accept Cabinet positions under Cleveland, but even since that comparatively recent date, the prestige of a United States Senator has become so great that resignations are extremely few.

Next to the Presidency there is no position in the government service so highly esteemed in the present day as that of Senator. And yet it is not a stepping-stone to the coveted office of President. The martyred Garfield was a senator-elect when summoned to the Presidential chair, but no Senator has ever passed directly from that position to the Presidency.

The Senate, though, is fast becoming noted for the age, as well as for the dignity of its members, and an election to membership in such an august body should be regarded as high an honor that only men of the highest character and ability should be deemed eligible for consideration.

Shows Too Much Class for Little Coast Boy.

Fight Stopped by Police in Sixteenth Round.

Winner Made Favorite, Owing to Eastern Betting.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Owen Moran, English's premier featherweight, was given the decision over Frankie Neil of this city, near the close of the sixteenth round after a remarkably fast battle. Neil, technically speaking, was not knocked out, but it was only merciful action of the Chief of Police which saved him from being sent into the land of nod.

There was not a moment's slow work during the entire contest. Both lads fought with remarkable vim and stamina. Early in the fight Moran showed himself to be the superior boxer. He is a clever, head-on fighter, his most effective work in tonight's contest being an almost continuous play on the Californian's head.

Neil showed remarkable ability to reach the Briton's stomach, as several times during the contest he had his opponent greatly worried. Moran scored his first knockdown of the night, Neil had the lead in but four rounds of the sixteenth round, Moran having a decided advantage in most of the rounds.

Moran's play for Neil's head began to tell with decided effect in the tenth round and from that on it was only a question of time.

While no championship title was involved, the fact that the winner will soon meet Abe Attell for the world's featherweight title, greatly accentuated interest in the outcome. Moran was forced into favoritism this evening at odds of 10 to 5, the remarkable change in the betting odds having been caused by large amounts of money telegraphed from the East to place on the Englishman.

Both lads weighed in at 8 o'clock tonight. Neil failed to move the beam at 125 pounds. He later gave out his weight at 137 pounds. Moran exceeded the contracted 125 pounds by one-quarter of a pound. Jim Neil, brother of Frankie, overbooked the fact that Moran was overweight and declined to claim the forfeit. Seven thousand persons filled the auditorium when time was called at 8:45 o'clock.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Round One—Neil rushed in, forcing his man to the ropes without landing. Moran quickly righted and left to the ring.

Round Two—Moran landed a right over Neil's head, which was a good margin.

CENSURED FOR NOT PREVENTING IOWA'S PRIZE FIGHT.

Capt. Kulp of State Militia Placed Under Arrest and Is to Be Tried by Court-martial for Disobeying Orders—Says Was No Fight Because No Decision Was Given.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Without any delay, the civic officers of Scott county are to be brought to an accounting for their failure to stop last night's prize fight in Davenport, as well as Capt. O. W. Kulp, who was placed under military arrest today, and will be tried by court-martial within eight days.

It is expected that the Governor's office that some citizens of Davenport will appear to complain against the Sheriff and Mayor of that city for not enforcing the law. In case such a complaint is lodged, Atty.-Gen. Byers will proceed to the work of removing the accused officers from office for not stopping the fight. Proceedings of a character will be brought before the presiding judge of the district and before a jury.

It is understood that Capt. Kulp's sole defense will be that there was no prize fight in Davenport. It is the position of both Gov. Cummins and Atty.-Gen. Byers that whether or not it was a fight, but that whether or not it was, they orders to Kulp permitted no discretion on his part, but demanded implicit obedience.

While the public was amused by last night's performance at Davenport, when it first learned of it, there is indignation already hotting for Davenport's defiance of the laws of the State. Gov. Cummins has received many assurances of support for a policy intended to punish a complete of those responsible for last night's event.

Mike Kutches and Kid McDonald, who were the main attraction of the fight, were both knocked out in the sixteenth round.

STANFORD AND U.S.C. SIGN UP CONTRACT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The contract which establishes permanent athletic relations between Stanford and the University of Southern California was signed and accepted here today.

H. R. Holmes acted as the authorized agent of the faculty Athletic Committee of the southern institution, while Graduate Manager Guy Klupp was the representative of the Associated Students of Stanford. The agreement is binding for two years, and calls for two tri-annual spring, one at each university.

The southern team is to come North for the first contest, and will receive a guarantee of $500 and 50 per cent of the net receipts. For the second meeting Stanford will journey South and will receive a $400 guarantee and one-half of the net receipts.

The contest is to be held under the strict eligibility rules now in force between Stanford and California. The Southern team is to be composed of the best athletes of the University of Southern California and Stanford.

Students in the preparatory departments of either university are to be regarded as specialists. While the dates for the two events have not yet been finally agreed upon, it is reasonably certain that the first Saturday in March will be the date of the first contest.

Stanford trackmen are very much pleased over the prospect of meeting the southern athletes.

MAUNDRELL WINNER.

The first annual cross country race at Stanford for the possession of the Quadrangle Club was won today by Harold Maundrell of San Francisco over a course which is estimated at a mile over four miles in the good time of 21m. 25s. Second place was won by J. E. Shelton of San Jose, and S. G. Sweet of Elbridge, N. Y., finished third.

Maundrell set the pace all the way and ran his competitors out before the finish. The race was a hard one, and the winners were completely exhausted, and needed some little attendance to resuscitate them.

DRIBBLES.

RIVERSIDE HIGH AND CASTAWAYS.

MAY BE SEASON'S LAST RUGBY GAME, AT BOVARD FIELD.

Local Team Scores Good Result and Prepares to Play Great Game Today in Preparation for Probable Northern Trip to Meet Stanford and Barbarians.

The Castaways are to meet Riverside High School today at Bovard Field. These two teams met at Riverside last Saturday, and neither side scored. The High School lads put up a splendid exhibition of Rugby, and the Castaways played in poor form. Had it not been for clever individual playing by Tom Higgins and Will Hunt, the Castaways would have suffered defeat.

Since last Saturday a letter from Stanford has raised the local players' hopes to a high condition, and they should be able to play a good game today. The local team has been practicing hard, and should be in better shape to play today than they were last Saturday.

The players do not expect a large crowd of rooters, as the school held no rally to commemorate the game, and the enthusiasm is not as strong as it formerly has been.

Santa Ana, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Santa Ana High School football team will play today at Bovard Field. The team has been practicing hard, and should be in better shape to play today than they were last Saturday.

Widgeons were much less plentiful than the ducks, and they were shot by the gunners. A few gadwall were seen and several were killed, but the purest of the widgeons were those that came with a few spoonbills scattered. The widgeons went over the hills and the grass patches in the morning and most of them did not come back up to the time the hunters quit dinner.

City Lots and Lands.

FOR SALE—
DO YOU REALIZE
YOU CAN HAVE
$5 PER CENT ON A LOW
RIGHT NOW?
We are offering a document of 20 acre worth from our regular plot on lots to those who will build at once for as little as $9 each. Each means that if you don't take advantage of the present offer you will at least pay four-fourths more cash, because this offer is open for a limited number of houses only. A builder took all we'd had this way in one of our tracts the past season, and has sold all of the houses he built. Building here in this tract would be very profitable and would sell so fast as to build. We make this offer to get a number of houses going early; it makes the remaining lots worth more and we got it all back later on. A small payment down and $10 per month secure, now, a year and interest—surroundings that are a bonus to any home buyer.
The most economical time to build is now. Now, yes, now. Have an lot and house now.

WAGON TRAIN HEADS FOR CORCORAN BEET LANDS.

By Wagon Train to the Sugar Fields.

Part of the big caravan of men and women, live stock and implements that left Los Angeles yesterday on the two-hundred-and-fifty-mile drive to Corcoran.

Of all the caravans that have crossed the desert in many years for a journey is that which left yesterday afternoon and now is heading westward to the sugar fields of the Corcoran district. The caravan is headed by a big team of mules, and the wagons are loaded with implements, hay and other food for the men and women, and the live stock. The caravan is headed by a big team of mules, and the wagons are loaded with implements, hay and other food for the men and women, and the live stock. The caravan is headed by a big team of mules, and the wagons are loaded with implements, hay and other food for the men and women, and the live stock.

By W. R. Culver, who, though but 40 years old, is the proud father of four of the young ladies, four of the boys and young men, and the grandfather of a baby that is making the strange journey.

In all, there are eighty-two mules in the train, which, traveling in close order, extended the length of nearly two city blocks.

Added to the two wagons carrying the mules are eight others, loaded with plows and other agricultural implements, hay and other food for the mules; also including a cook wagon fully stocked with provisions for the travelers.

It was announced by Mr. Culver that the 250-mile overland trip to Corcoran would be made in ten days or at the rate of twenty-five miles a day. The route will be through Burbank, where the party expected to camp by the roadside last night, on to Newhall, through the San Francisco Cañon to Gorman Station, thence to Bakersfield and on to Corcoran.

This outfit of stock and implements will be used in the plowing and planting of the Tagus ranch of 2500 acres, a portion of the expansive area of about 10,000 acres that is to be devoted to the growing of sugar beets for the great new million-dollar sugar factory now under construction at Corcoran. The men of the party will form a part of the big army of industry that is filling the fertile soil of the Corcoran district in preparation for next season's harvest of sugar beets, for which the immense factory will be ready.

Throughout that entire section the agents of the Security Land and Loan Company report wonderful activity among the settlers who have gone in to develop the country.

Already the foundations are in and the superstructure of the Pacific Sugar Company's immense factory is going up. Much machinery has been installed and more is on the way. The factory, it is said, will be ready for operation by March 1 of next year. It is under contract for completion by June 1, when the harvest of the beets now being planted will begin.

AS SHE APPEARS AT COURT. Duchess of Marlborough Presents Friends With Photographs Taken.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, who is visiting old friends in this city, is giving her hosts photographs of herself as she appears in court dress and tiara in England. In London she is known as "the best-dressed American Duchess."

The photograph, which was taken in London, shows the Duchess in the full regalia of her rank. A lariat of pearls entwined around her neck looks strong in the display of jewelry. The costume and jewelry are valued at an almost fabulous sum.

KILLS DEFAMER OF HOME. Helena, Mont., Man Rides Seventy Miles to Surrender After Shooting Leading Citizen.

HELENA (Mont.), Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Upon an admission of infidelity by his wife, Chester Smith, a prominent resident of Fergus county, arrested himself and went in search of the defamer of his home. He met him at the Pine Grove postoffice. Smith made his wife accompany him and upon receiving an answer in the affirmative as to the truth of her statement, he opened fire, but not until his enemy, Walter Fairburn, another well-known resident, had picked up a rock, threatening to kill him, according to Smith's version.

Fairburn threw one rock and was picking up another when shot. Smith fired two shots, death resulting instantly.

Fairburn was unmarried. Smith says his justification will be the unwritten law and self defense. Immediately after the shooting he mounted his horse and rode seventy miles to the county seat, where he surrendered to the sheriff.

COMING TO AMERICA. Two Prominent Filipinos Will Represent Commission at National Capital.

MANILA, Nov. 22.—(Pablo Ocampo and Benito Legarda, who have been chosen as commissioners from the Philippines to Washington, expect to leave for America by the liner Manchuria, November 25.

Legarda was a member of the Aguinaldo congress under compulsion. He was an American sympathizer during the revolution and a member of the Philippine Commission since the civil government was created. He has great wealth and is well educated. He has visited the United States several times. Ocampo was identified with the revolution in 1899. He was secretary of the Aguinaldo congress and was sent into exile to Guam. After the surrender of the revolutionists he took the oath under the general amnesty act and since has lived quietly, practicing law. He was an independent candidate before the Assembly from Manila, and defeated Legarda, who was the choice of the Philippine Commission. Ocampo being that of the Assembly. Both houses then voted separately after entering into an agreement that each would ratify the other's choice.

LOS ANGELES AT THE FRONT!

LEADS WHOLE COAST. LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

Los Angeles, "Paradise of the Pacific," was an unknown desert quantity when Seattle, Portland and San Francisco were full-fledged seaport cities. Solid wealth, backed with nerve and sturdy faith, have combined in developing Los Angeles more rapidly, more firmly and more safely than any other Pacific Coast city.

Business conditions here are sound and substantial. Some actual figures on newspaper advertising in the four big cities of the Pacific Coast—accurate figures compiled by the newspapers in their respective places of publication—tend to show the "state of affairs" in each; that the Los Angeles Times is not only foremost on the Coast in inches of advertising printed for the month of October, 1907, but is the leading newspaper of the entire world in number of pages and volume of advertising.

ANALYSIS.

(1) Los Angeles: The volume of advertising in The Times for October is greater than that of the Express, Record, Herald and News combined, besides being greater than the combined total of the two next largest papers.

(2) San Francisco: The aggregate of 98,855 inches printed in the Los Angeles Times is larger than the combined totals of the Chronicle, Call and Bulletin.

(3) Portland: The Los Angeles Times printed more inches of paid matter in October than the two largest Portland papers combined.

(4) Seattle: Advertising in Seattle being confined to only two publications, the comparison of aggregates is not absolutely just to Los Angeles, but nevertheless the Los Angeles Times is shown to print more paid matter by 40 per cent. than the largest Seattle paper.

It should be noted in this comparison and analysis that in Los Angeles the advertising is divided among six papers, in San Francisco four, in Portland three, and in Seattle two, which makes the record for the leading paper in this city—the Los Angeles Times—all the more remarkable. These are great and significant facts.

EXPLAINS JAPAN'S EXPOSITION.

Viscount Kaneko Says Big Fair Will Be of Great Benefit to the East.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) TOKIO, Nov. 22.—Viscount Kaneko, director-general of the International Exposition, to be held in Tokio in 1912, at a dinner given to the foreign ambassadors and ministers to Japan at the Nobles' Club, announced the scope of the exposition.

He said that exhibits would be admitted free of duty, and that it was expected that the comprehensive exposition of the resources of the East, wherein the West would participate would insure to the benefit of the East.

In the absence of the British Ambassador, Sir Claude M. MacDonald, the German Ambassador, Baron Munster von Schartzstein, responding on behalf of his colleagues of the diplomatic corps, said he was assured that all countries would participate in the exposition, which would prove a new motive and means for a rapprochement, which would guarantee the peace of all the nations.

FRANK G. CARPENTER'S letter in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday will tell of the remarkable city of Charleston, "the Chicago of Central Africa."

THE CITY IN BRIEF

A port of call!

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

For Post and Corps.
Bartlett Logan, W.R.C., will hold a reception for the post and corps this evening at No. 517 1/2 South Broadway, and all patriotic people invited.

Found With Smuggler.
Joe Wing and two young Chinese, who were found in San Bernardino in company with a notorious Chinese smuggler, were ordered deported yesterday by United States Commissioner Van Dyke.

Yale-Harvard Smoker.
Following the football game to be played between Yale and Harvard this afternoon at Cambridge, the Yale and Harvard University associations of Southern California will hold a smoker at the University Club this evening.

Run Down by Auto.
H. H. Abbotson, aged 53 years, of No. 207 Kohler street, was painfully injured yesterday at noon, when an automobile, driven by Paul Goodwin, ran into him and threw him violently to the ground. The rear wheel of the machine passed over the victim's left wrist, breaking it.

Bad Negro Captured.
Robert Bolton, who terrorized the inmates of "Mahogany Hall" with a razor Monday night, was arrested last night for assault with a deadly weapon. Gertrude Morris, whom he threatened to kill, will appear against him in court this morning.

Dog-catcher Bitten.
William Clorist, a dog catcher, was bitten by a dog yesterday afternoon in Bryant Park when he attempted to pull it out of some underbrush. Clorist had chased the canine several blocks in an effort to capture it. His wound was dressed at the Receiving Hospital.

Reception to Naval Officers.
Rear-Admiral Dayton, members of his staff and officers of the cruiser squadron, now anchored off Redondo, will be the guests of honor at an informal reception to be given this afternoon to 8 o'clock the Los Angeles Country Club. There will be music and refreshments.

Out of Danger.
Rev. Michael McLaughlin, pastor of Sacred Heart Church, who has been critically ill from pneumonia, is reported out of danger. He is one of the most prominent pastors in the diocese, and his friends in the city have been very anxious over the outcome of his illness.

Will Keep Them Here.
Currie Parsons and Jennie Redding, who escaped yesterday from the Door of Hope, were arrested last night at the Santa Fe Station. They were going to San Bernardino. They were wanted by the State as witnesses in a felony case which will soon be called in the Superior Court.

Round-up of Hobos.
Seven suspects were arrested last night by the police. Four of them were found in the Southern Pacific yards shortly after coming from San Francisco on a freight train. They gave the names of Max Burns, Gus Reber, E. Fernandez, C. E. Fisher, James Wyatt, A. E. Kyle and W. A. Daynes.

Burglar Displays Taste.
A burglar entered the Sultitium dye-house at No. 515 East Fifth street early Friday and picked out four or five suits to take home. He was caught by the police, who found the suits in his car. He was charged with burglary and is being held in the city jail.

Man Is Missing.
Attorney Alfonso Moore has received instructions to look up Charles C. Jones, brother of the man who was the Salt Lake Independent Telephone Company. Jones is supposed to be in the city, but his whereabouts are unknown. Moore yesterday communicated with the different hospitals of the city, but was unable to get trace of Jones.

Music for Girls.
The young ladies of the Girls' Colonnade School at Hoover and West Adams streets were entertained last evening by an excellent musical program given by the De Lano Mandolin and Guitar Club, including selections from William Tell and other operas. Many of them are good players themselves, but classical pieces by such an orchestra was the greater number a revelation.

Disa Unattended.
A. G. Sanborn, aged 65 years, was found dead in bed yesterday at No. 511 Central avenue, where he had been rooming some time. Sanborn had been dead some time. He had not been seen by his friends since last Monday, and it is thought he died on that day. Sanborn had lived in Los Angeles for five years. It is not known whether he had any relatives. Hearst funeral probably caused death, but an inquest will be held today at Pierce Bros' morgue to determine the exact cause.

Triangle Competitive Drill.
Competitive drills by Cos. A and B of the Triangle Cadets of the Y.M.C.A. will decide which will hold the handsome trophy now, and if they win, they will retain the banner permanently, but if Co. B wins, another drill will have to be held to decide the championship. The drill will take place on Grand avenue, between Sixth and Seventh streets, tonight, between 8 and 9 o'clock. Maj. Oscar B. Smith of the Cadet Corps would like to see all applicants for positions in the corps at the Y.M.C.A. at No. 614 South Broadway this evening, as there are a number of vacancies in the ranks to be filled. The corps is planning a large social in the near future.

RECEPTION TO AUTHOR.

Interesting Musical and Literary Entertainment Given at Cumnock Hall by Club Members.

A musical and literary entertainment and a reception was given last night at Cumnock Hall by the Progress Literary Club in honor of Louis F. Curtis, author of "Story and Song." An excellent program was rendered, and afterward the guests congregated in the parlor of the hall, where they met Mr. Curtis. The first number on the program was a flute solo, "Raphaela," by G. Terschak, rendered by Miss May Ludlow. M. C. Bettinger delivered a short address and introduced Mr. Curtis. Mr. Curtis acknowledged Mr. Bettinger's complimentary introduction, and then recited "Curly," from "Story and Song." Miss Elsie Behymer gave two recitations from the same work. The program was brought to a close with a piano solo by Miss Lulu C. Johns.

RESIDENCES BURNED.

Explosion of Gasoline Stove Starts Blaze That Destroys Two Homes in Southwest Section.

Fire, starting from the explosion of a gasoline stove at No. 1266 West Forty-fifth street, early yesterday morning, destroyed the homes of V. W. Brown at that address and the home of Mrs. R. I. V. Campbell at No. 1267 West Forty-fifth street. The flames from the explosion caused the members of the Brown family to flee to the streets. The entire furnishings of the house were consumed and the structure practically ruined. Driven by high winds, the flames spread to the Campbell home, which faces on West Forty-fifth street. Despite the efforts of the firemen, that home also was destroyed. Neither place was insured.

Fire destroyed the homes of three Slavonian families in the rear of No. 146 Rio street yesterday afternoon. The places were more shacks and the damage small.

BREVITIES.

You would have to travel many a day to find a more complete stock of men's furnishings than is shown in this spacious new store of ours. Shirts of every description, underwear of all kinds, hosiery in the greatest variety, neckwear in all colors and in all the new correct shades. AFFINITY DENIED, LOVE IN TEARS.

SOUL SISTER WEEPS WHEN PACT IS VIOLATED.

Remarkable Document Produced in Court, Signed by Man and Woman Who Agree to Live Together According to Higher Thoughts of Science and Natural Law.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Love, set forth in a formal legal document that made affinity paramount to marriage, today wept over its broken union in Judge Newcomer's court. A soul sister who had read the stars for her wisdom complained that her affinity had violated his solemn compact, just as though it were a common garden variety marriage in which less mentally developed persons were united by a minister.

Robert Gilray, who has been for twelve years a practicing attorney at the Chicago bar, denied that he had ever been married to Adelaide Lawton of Boise City, Idaho, who claimed that she was his wife.

"My God, does the man say I am not his wife?" frantically cried the woman. Then she produced a most remarkable document which both had signed at Boise, agreeing to live together according to higher thoughts of science and natural law.

"The soul sister faced the court and said: 'I am not; I merely lived with her under an agreement,' she replied. 'Is this your defense?' asked the court.

"It is," he replied. A bond of $500, to keep the peace, was required. That is all the soul sister sought.

PRINCE AND PRINCESS WED.

Strict Privacy Observed in Civil Marriage of Son of King of Greece.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) PARIS, Nov. 12.—The marriage of Prince George of Greece, second son of the King of Greece and high commissioner for the powers in Crete, and Princess Marie Bonaparte, took place at the Mairie at Paris yesterday. The strictest privacy was observed. The witnesses for the Prince were Prince Nicholas, 45, and Prince M. de Yannis, the Greek Minister. Those for the bride were Princess Jeanne Bonaparte and Princess Constantin Radziwill.

The ceremony was a pure formality and does not change the status of the contracting parties, as the Greek church does not recognize the validity of a civil marriage.

Words, Mud, Bricks, Knives and Guns Figure in Exciting Feud of Families, and Forty Witnesses Will Tell Court About It.

MRS. DELIA PIPHER of No. 1968 South Los Angeles street called Mrs. Agnes Matthews of No. 1962 same street "a little Dutch dam." Mrs. Agnes Matthews then called Mrs. Delia Pipher "a foot-racing Portuguese."

Then Otis Murphy, who also lives at No. 1968 South Los Angeles street, was taken into a family in Pasadena. They had difficulty and she was arrested, charged with the theft of a bracelet from the woman's home. Her (then) sweetheart, Max Matthews, went to her rescue. It was easily proven that she did not take the bracelet. Then she consented to marry Max. Another woman who wanted Max to fly with her to Europe, became angered and showered the woman with vitriol, but the acid only burned her clothes.

That was three years ago. A little over a year ago Mrs. Matthews lost her only child. She then moved to the Los Angeles street. She was taken into a family in Pasadena. They had difficulty and she was arrested, charged with the theft of a bracelet from the woman's home. Her (then) sweetheart, Max Matthews, went to her rescue. It was easily proven that she did not take the bracelet. Then she consented to marry Max. Another woman who wanted Max to fly with her to Europe, became angered and showered the woman with vitriol, but the acid only burned her clothes.

UNHEALTHFUL TRIP. She and Mrs. Pipher were the best of friends until Mrs. Matthews went East for her health. Mrs. Pipher used to run foot races in Stockton. This fact led to the remark about the "foot racer."

Sometimes ago some one fired a shot at Matthews, and missed. It was alleged that Mrs. Pipher did it, but a complaint was denied Mrs. Matthews. Then followed a general war. Every one called every one else names, until the air was blue with language. Mrs. Matthews, armed with a huge bolo, arrived at the psychological moment when Mrs. Pipher was preparing for combat with Mrs. Pipher hanging around to referee. The bolo quelled the disturbance.

Then Mrs. Pipher and Matthews scolded one another over the back fence, and Matthews, with a long knife, dared Mrs. Pipher, who was armed with a revolver, to start hostilities. Mrs. Matthews prevented trouble by interfering.

And there has been no end of hostilities. Thursday evening when Murphy came home, Mrs. Matthews alleges, he called her a naughty name. She turned quickly to see who was speaking, and purely by accident, of course, the nozzle of the hose she held in her hand turned with her, and the water played gently over Murphy's little blonde mustache.

Murphy was ducked and did duck, and Mrs. Pipher came out quick. Then the cobblestones and other gentle episodes. It is alleged by Mrs. Pipher that Mrs. Matthews and her husband got up in the dead of night and threw bricks at her house. Mrs. Matthews says Mrs. Pipher hurled two Irish bouquets at her early yesterday morning.

Forty or more witnesses have been called to appear at the trial. FINE CITY MAP. One of the most practical ever issued with the "Shooting" District Fully Shown.

One of the most complete maps of the city of Los Angeles, including the "Shooting" district, ever issued has just been placed on the market by John H. Byers and Engineer N. Bowditch Blunt of the City Water Department. The map, which retails for $10, measures five feet and nine inches from top to bottom and is four feet wide. Its scale is two inches to one mile.

In this remarkably comprehensive map are shown all the public buildings, school houses, fire houses, fire hydrants and railways. All of the new subdivisions within the city's limits are shown and the newly-opened streets are clearly marked. Every respect the map is one of the most practical ever issued, showing as it does all the streets properly indicated from Garvanza to San Pedro.

LITTLE COURTESIES. "I don't fight like a woman, clawing and scratching and all that; I fight like a man, with my fists, and I ain't afraid of no one," announced Mrs. Pipher yesterday, as she glared toward her next door neighbor's porch, where the dainty little Mrs. Matthews was posing with a red carnation, and her petite nose, and her small slipper kicking gently and thoughtfully against the porch.

"I put one of those long knives under my dress when I saw her coming for me, and if she had laid her hand on me I would have split her wide open," was the soft remark of blonde little Mrs. Matthews, as she pointed to one of the long blades captured by her soldier husband in the Philippines.

"She made faces at me and put her thumb to her nose and wagged her fingers at some company I had visiting me," said Mrs. Pipher, still glaring at the little figure, on the porch. "She coaxed my little cat over to her house and poured hot water on it," said the blonde, gliding back at the brunette fury dimly outlined against the door frame.

Her husband made love to me after Mrs. Matthews went East, and tried to kiss me after I had been so kind as to give him a guitar," said Mrs. Pipher. "The cat, she tried to steal my husband from me while I was away, and better, because my husband is handsome than Murphy," interrupted Mrs. Matthews.

NORTH JARS THE SOUTH.

Clearinghouses of San Francisco and Los Angeles Clash Over Scrip. War was threatened between the clearinghouses of Los Angeles and San Francisco yesterday, and for a brief time friendly banking relations between the two great cities of the Pacific Coast were actually severed.

So serious became the situation that the Clearinghouse Committee of Los Angeles held a special meeting yesterday afternoon and with a cool-headedness to be commended put an end to the threatened strife. Incidentally San Francisco has received a lesson in bankers will in all likelihood remember with a realization that the clearinghouse in the north does not absolutely dominate the financial situation on the Pacific Coast.

Since the financial stringency there has been a rubbing of the Los Angeles banks by the San Francisco clearinghouse. Checks and drafts upon San Francisco banks deposited for collection in this city have been paid up there in scrip, which is perfectly good in that city, but is not current in Los Angeles.

This was all right as long as exchange was drawn against exchange. But the San Francisco clearinghouse demanded that drafts upon Los Angeles be paid in legal tender for the northern city.

Recently the Los Angeles Clearinghouse Committee decided that what was good for Los Angeles was also good for San Francisco and that as the northern city treated the southern metropolis so should it be treated.

But this did not please the San Francisco bankers and their Clearinghouse Committee met and passed resolutions reflecting upon the Los Angeles banks—a declaration of war.

At the meeting of the Los Angeles Clearinghouse Committee yesterday its members did not attempt to retaliate and to precipitate further trouble; they simply decided that the Los Angeles clearinghouse would ignore that of San Francisco; and resolutions were passed permitting each individual Los Angeles bank to act upon all items of exchange with San Francisco as it might please.

The action of the Los Angeles Clearinghouse Committee yesterday was practically a declaration of independence. UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS. There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Postal Telegraph Company for John D. Shoffer, Mary Stary, F. St. John, E. J. Kahl, E. B. Edmondson, J. E. Costen, Capt. E. B. Baldwin, Mrs. E. B. Bailey, Mrs. Grace Bear.

SCHEME IS NIPPED. As soon as the matter was called to the attention of Chief Engineer Mulholland, he wrote to the local postal authorities, stating that no outside concern had authority to hire men for work on the aqueduct.

"This is a simple fake," he wrote, "perpetrated on men who least can afford to lose the fees demanded by this concern."

Mr. Mulholland stated that the aqueduct has no dealing with employment agencies, as it has its own registration bureau, while the work on the aqueduct is not of the kind of men that are needed in the work. Applications of likely persons are placed on file, however, and hundreds will be in easy reach when the proper time comes.

Acting on Engineer Mulholland's letter, Postal Inspector Wilson traced the "Engineering Journal," which gave as its address a postoffice box number at Inglewood, and the prospectus of whom name appears simply as Cox in the official report, was reached.

He is said to have addressed to his concern was held up from that time, being returned to the senders and that was the end of the "Journal."

FOR HONORED MASON. Scottish Rite Bodies Tender Reception and Smoker to Eleven Newly-distinguished Members. The officers and members of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Bodies of Freemasonry of this city gathered at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, No. 929 South Hope street, last evening, to do honor to Francis X. Pfaffinger and William D. Stephens, upon whom was recently conferred by the Supreme Council assembled in Washington, the title, Knights Commander of the Court of Honor; namely, Messrs. F. M. A. Hammel, J. W. Webster, F. M. Parker, C. V. Eccleston, C. S. Walton, D. J. Brownstein, G. A. Yarnell, C. C. Mueller and J. C. Blosser. The affair took the form of a reception and smoker and was largely attended, invitations having been sent to the worshipful masters and wardens of all the blue lodges in Southern California.

Perry W. Wiedener, thirty-third degree, and William Rhodes Hovey, thirty-third degree, acted as masters of ceremonies and during the evening some of the beautiful scenery and many of the elaborate costumes used in the progressive Scottish Rite work, were exhibited. The eleven guests of honor aforementioned were then formally presented by Mr. Wiedener, and in response to continued applause, Mr. Stephens spoke for himself and colleagues. General congratulations followed and opportunity was given the invited guests to inspect the splendidly furnished cathedral choir and a Dutch buffet luncheon served in the banquet hall concluded an evening of enjoyment.

FAKE SCHEME DROWNED OUT.

Promise of Aqueduct Jobs Bait for Suckers. Many Send Money to Pay "Registration Fees."

Exposure Ends Game of an Inglewood Trickster. A cheap scheme for lulling thousands of men throughout the United States has just been nipped in the bud by Chief Engineer Mulholland of the Los Angeles aqueduct and Inspector Wilson of the Postoffice Department, who have caused the "Engineering Journal" of Inglewood to cease its shady existence.

No arrests were made, but the mail for the concern, which was nothing more than a name, has been stopped. Letters that continue to come in response to advertisements in eastern and northern papers are returned with their money contents to the senders.

It appears the scheme was concocted by a man named Cox, who was connected at one time with the construction of the outfall sewer. Cox was given a peppy lecture by the post-inspector and allowed to go on promise to discontinue his questionable tactics.

Advertisements appeared in newspapers in Denver, Seattle and other cities, announcing that 5000 men and 1000 teams were needed in the construction of the Los Angeles aqueduct, at wages ranging from $100 to $500 a month.

MANY COMPLAINTS. Complaints were received at the offices of the aqueduct from many who had responded to the advertisement. They by the way, received a circular in reply to their letters, informing them that, for a time, they would be supplied with a map and further particulars. In many cases, it is alleged, nothing was heard after the time was sent.

One feature of the scheme was to induce suckers to pay from $1 to $5 for enrollment as eligibles for work on the aqueduct. For the purchase of land, water rights, right of way, supplies and the like, that an additional $5,000,000 was available.

"Registration fees must accompany all applications," it was announced. "Still your friends," screamed in the effort to rope in more victims.

Numbers of men have come to Los Angeles from distant points, drawn by the alluring bait, but upon application at the office of the aqueduct demand exists just now for engineers or laborers.

SCHEME IS NIPPED. As soon as the matter was called to the attention of Chief Engineer Mulholland, he wrote to the local postal authorities, stating that no outside concern had authority to hire men for work on the aqueduct.

HEIR IS MISSING. Valuable Ranch Property Lies Idle While Sister of Late Owner is Sought Here. A ranch of 100 acres near Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, is lying idle while an effort is being made to locate the heirs of Charles T. Grant, who died there on the 21st inst. Grant's remains are held by the undertakers pending the receipt of instructions concerning their disposition.

So far all efforts at locating any member of Grant's family have proved unavailing. A sister, Mrs. L. J. Congdon, is supposed to be a resident of this city, but repeated telegrams and letters have failed to bring response from her.

According to information in the possession of the Idaho authorities, Mrs. Congdon's address here was formerly postoffice box No. 465. Inquiry at the postoffice yesterday elicited the information that, prior to July 17, that box had been rented by M. J. S. Congdon, but that, since that time, it had not been used.

When she gave up the postoffice box Mrs. Congdon left an order to have the mail placed in the general delivery. Whether she has called for it or not the attaches of the office are unable to say, but at present there is no mail there for her.

If Mrs. Congdon is still here and has received the communications sent her regarding her brother's death, she must have some reason for her reluctance which the Idaho authorities are unable to fathom. In the meantime the situation is peculiar, as the estate is tied up and the undertaker is at a loss to know what disposition to make of the remains of the late owner.

Grant is said to be a retired minister who, for many years, was comedian with Primrose and West's minstrel show.

SON'S SAD FLIGHT. Starves Himself to Aid His Parents. Found Unconscious in the Street. Weakened from self-denial of food in order to save money to bring his parents to California, Morris Fidelman, aged 18, fell insensible last night at Central avenue and Twenty-fifth street. He was found by Harvey M. Cummings of No. 905 West Eleventh street, and carried into a drug store. The police were notified and he was taken to the Receiving Hospital. Fidelman is a laborer and has been working from daylight until dark in order to make good wages. He has occupied a small room at No. 235 Central avenue for some months and existed on the plainest of food. He was on his way to his home when he fell exhausted in the street.

Fidelman's parents live in Russia. Every month he has sent them the money he has succeeded in saving. In his pockets were five receipts for postoffice orders, which he had sent to them for the purchase of food. He has represented about $100 in United States money.

Fidelman said he was trying to earn enough money to bring his parents here and had been working every day for more than a year.

PURE MILK SUPPLY. County Medical Association Discusses Means of Securing Uncontaminated Product. Pure milk and the best means of securing it for consumers were the subjects of interesting and valuable papers presented at a large meeting of the Los Angeles County Medical Society last evening at Blanchard Hall. Certification of milk was set forth as the real solution of the problem that has given the Board of Health probably more trouble than any other question that it has had to meet.

Dr. Albert W. Moore, member of the Los Angeles Board of Health, read a paper in which he reviewed the conditions of the city's milk supply, and the difficulty in guaranteeing its purity. He told of the efforts of an El Monte dairyman to establish a certified dairy, principally to supply the city of Pasadena, and said Los Angeles could share in the benefits if local consumers would take a proper interest in the matter and be willing to pay the added cost of possibly 2 or 3 cents a quart.

Dr. W. A. Edwards read a paper on the importance of pure milk for children, and Dr. George L. Cole discussed on milk as a diet for the sick and for children, laying stress on the necessity of freedom from contamination.

The various papers were discussed by Dr. L. M. Powers, Health Officer for Los Angeles, by Dr. George L. Kress of this city and by Dr. F. C. Mattison of Pasadena.

DRUNK ON DUTY. Detective Hawley Suspended by Chief Kern for Again Imbibing Too Much. James J. Hawley, a member of the detective branch of the Los Angeles police department, was suspended yesterday by Chief Kern for being drunk on duty. There are rumors of other charges against him, but until the matter is brought to the attention of the Board of Police Commissioners the details of the alleged irregularities charged against Hawley will not be made public, even the nature of the complaints which have been made against him being kept secret.

Hawley has been in trouble before more than once. He is possessed, however, of a mysterious "pull," which has always saved him, despite the fact that other members of the force have been dismissed for less serious offenses than have been charged against him. The most serious charge ever made against him in connection with his official duties is that he will run when under fire. He has displayed this trait on at least two occasions when his brother officers were in danger of being shot by persons whom they sought to arrest.

WORK OF A FIREBUG. A fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, was discovered in the rear of A. W. McCready's residence, at No. 816 Carondelet street, about 7:30 o'clock last evening. It was extinguished by A. W. McCready, Jr., before it had gained headway. A bundle of rugs, saturated with oil had been stuffed under the back porch and ignited. They were a mass of flames when found. Mr. McCready said they had not been placed there by any member of the family.

BURGLAR OR HIGHWAYMAN? Officers Morris and Wallace of Jack Hendrickson's private watchman service in Chester Place, arrested William Rascaler at Thirty-first and Figueroa streets, early yesterday morning. The officers were patrolling through the neighborhood when they noticed a man loitering beneath a big palm at the corner. They crept up behind him and covered him with their revolvers. He was searched, and a revolver, a kit of burglar's tools and a mask found in his possession. He is being held on suspicion at the City Jail.

PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

A special session of the City Council was held yesterday afternoon at the Board of Health was given another week on the clean-up of the city.

The building of a warehouse in Chavez Ravine was not decided upon, but the Board of Public Works was asked to present definite figures on Monday.

Councilman Healy got mad because the fellow members would not vote on the question of increasing the salaries of the marine and sailors on the United States warships.

The judges of the Superior Court held a conference yesterday at which the necessity of opening the courts was considered, and a question of the legality of the holidays was raised. A new plan for disposing of passed cases was adopted, which will obviate the necessity of resuming the calendar.

AT THE CITY HALL.

CLEAN-UP GETS ANOTHER WEEK.

HEALTH BOARD REPORTS FUND ONLY HALF USED.

Building of Work-house in Chavez Ravine Will Clean Up on Monday With Definite Data on the Subject. Growth of City Causes Great Change in Figures.

A special meeting of the City Council was called yesterday afternoon to consider matters that were deemed important in connection with the construction of a warehouse in Chavez Ravine, but which, it was stated, might suffer from delay.

A strong effort was made to put through an ordinance providing for the construction of a warehouse in Chavez Ravine, but it failed. Councilman Healy fought it off. The recommendation of the Fire Commission that twenty-five additional fire-alarm boxes be installed was also rejected. A report on the way concerning fire department matters, forestalling any delay on the subject and it was quickly referred to the Finance Committee.

Further an unusual report was presented from the Board of Health, which had at its disposal $25,000 for the general cleanup of the city. It came to the attention of the council that the work might be thoroughly completed. In so doing, Dr. L. M. Powers, City Health Officer, stated that they had expended thus far less than $12,000 of the appropriation, and the remainder would be available for the cleanup of the city. All citizens are notified to place no rubbish in the streets after 10 o'clock, as that part of the cleaning process will be abandoned during the remaining week of the campaign. Householders, however, are urged to keep their yards clean, except that which will go regularly through the channel of the garbage collector. It was a marked commitment to Dr. Powers that in passing the ordinance for the extension of time the number of laborers employed for the work was left entirely to the discretion of the Health Officer.

The provision of the ordinance for the acceptance of clearinghouse scrip, in the several city departments, was extended to the water department, and you may now pay your water rent in the local notes.

The details on the warehouse matter was lengthy, and indicated an expenditure of about $25,000, but was finally disposed of by passing a resolution introduced by Mr. Work. The Board of Public Works is asked to have plans and specifications prepared and present them to the City Council on Monday, together with an estimate of the cost.

Orders were ordered constructed as follows: A storm drain at Third and Alameda streets; enlargement of the one now at Fifth and Alameda, and the construction of a new one over in the neighborhood of the Baker Iron Works. A main sewer along the line of the Fresno de Los Pinos, from Anderson street to 10th street, estimated to cost $17,000; the east Boyle Heights sewer, estimated to cost $15,000, and the street lights sewer to cost probably $15,000.

There was a warm time over the effort to pass two resolutions over the objection of the City Auditor. They were for about $200, in favor of Will E. Healy, who had furnished food for horses, on the order of the Board of Public Works. The board majority stated that they had forgotten to present a requisition until the day was needed, and asked that the warrants be approved nevertheless, but Wren was determined to have the offenders "on the carpet." A motion that the request to pay the warrants against the head of the Auditor be denied was adopted four to three, but the matter was finally jumbled around so that it was interpreted to mean that the warrants were to be filed, and they will come up on Monday when the Board of Public Works will be expected to make some further explanation.

The session of the Council ended in a jangle going off in a huff. He visited the warehouse, the other day, and was not impressed with the fact that the blueprints do not go far enough, that he asked the Council to support a resolution calling upon the members of Congress to vote for an increase of pay. To get rid of it, President Powers ruled that it was not in the call for the special session of the Council and could not be considered. Healy was mad and moved that everything else that was not in the call be stricken from the record, but he could get no second. He refused to remain for adjournment, and left the City Hall, mad all the way through.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

FINDS BIGGER CITY.

As an evidence of the rapid growth of Los Angeles, the Board of Health yesterday found it necessary to give notice that its former estimate of the population upon which to base statistics during the current year, would have to be changed. A population of 250,000 was to have been made the basis of calculation, but figures in the office of the water department indicate at the present moment a population of 375,000, and the Board of Health has changed its base of calculation to 375,000.

The Los Angeles Tanning and Leather Company yesterday applied for a permit to erect a plant east of the River, in the territory bounded by South 10th street, the Los Angeles River and the Los Angeles Railway. The matter was held over, and the Board of Health will make an inspection of the district to inform themselves of the propriety of granting the request.

Otto Gundert, an emergency sanitary inspector, was laid off in the Second Ward, and R. M. Davis, a civil service man, was appointed in the Third Ward in the stead of Capt. Lockwood, resigned.

Health Officer Powers appointed John Flammer an additional meat inspector for sixty days, covering the holiday season, and the appointment was confirmed.

Sanitary Inspector Houghton recommended the destruction of a house occupied by a man named Barnett, on Berkeley street, near Alvarado. He stated that it was a small house moved onto a large foundation, that the man lived in the house and kept all kinds of live stock in the basement. The matter was referred to Building Inspector Fackus, Fire Chief Corbin and A. D. Houghton. The same report and reference was made concerning the place known as Mahogany Hall, and a number of adobe houses on New High street.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

DISCUSS PLAN TO OPEN COURT.

JUDGES HOLD CONFERENCE IN CHAMBERS.

Legality of Holidays Questioned, but No Definite Action Resolved Upon—Arrange to Meet Monday. New Method of Disposing of the Passed Cases Is Adopted by Jurists.

Whatever action may be decided upon finally by the Legislature, there is probability that the courts in this county will be open for business next week.

A conference of the nine Superior Court judges was held yesterday morning in Judge Monroe's chambers, to determine what action should be taken. The question of whether the Legislature may legally delegate its powers to the extent of empowering the Governor to declare holidays was taken up. The conclusion was reached that the opening of the courts in any event, should the holidays continue, but the question was considered at length.

There will be another conference of the judges Monday morning, at which time it is hoped the action of the Legislature will have been taken to end the deadlock. Through several attorneys, in the course of the holidays, have brought up the question of the legality of the holidays, the judges have been inclined to accept the edict of the Governor, thinking the holidays would soon be ended. A different view is being taken now, and the feeling that the courts must open is becoming general.

A method of disposing of the cases which have been passed in the course of the holidays was adopted at the conference yesterday. Instead of rejecting the entire calendar, as the department, some of which extend far into January already, without the addition of cases since the holidays began, three of the passed cases will be added to the calendar each week. The cases added will be set for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week, making double work for each of these days. It is believed that, through early and late sessions, and the utilization of the time that can be spared from the law and motion calendars Friday, with divorces crowded into the short day Saturday, it will be possible to catch up the calendars without retreating them.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

TRYING AGAIN. Habeas corpus proceedings were begun yesterday to secure the release of Clarence M. Lincoln from the County Jail, where he is held to await trial in the Superior Court on a charge of perjury.

The claim set up by Attorney Axell is that lying in a sworn deposition does not constitute perjury unless the false testimony is material to the case at issue, and that his client's testimony was not material, since no answer to the original complaint in the Hurth divorce case had been filed. Mr. Axell's action occasioned much amusement yesterday in the Courthouse. The will is returnable this morning before Judge James.

MURDER HEARING. Frederick D. Cook, who has admitted the killing of his wife on a Santa Monica car a year ago, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Latham, and the preliminary examination set for December 5. Cook intends to make a fight to escape the extreme penalty for his crime, by pleading justification.

IN MEMORIAM. The members of the Bar Association will meet in Department Five of the Superior Court this morning at 10 o'clock, when memorial resolutions will be presented by the committees appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of Will A. Harris and A. B. McCutchen.

RAILWAY SUIT. Messak Politian yesterday filed suit in the Superior Court against the Pacific Electric Railway Company, asking $1990 damages for alleged injuries received November 22, 1906, at Ninth and Wall streets. The complaint states that Politian was standing close to the track, because of the speed and condition of the car, when the controller burst, throwing a spurt of flame in his face and causing him to fall from the moving car. The injuries alleged are burns and bruises, and the destruction of an overcoat and a pair of trousers.

NEW CORPORATIONS. M. L. Germain Company, capital stock $10,000, with $200 subscribed; Long Beach Sanatorium, capital stock $25,000, with $50 subscribed.

FORGETFUL. Fred Lummer, charged with robbing Woo Gong in 21 Monte November 14, after striking him in the back of the neck with a stone, was arraigned before Justice Summerfield yesterday, and his examination set for Monday. Lummer declared that he saw no Chinaman at all on the night of the robbery.

WOMAN'S DEVOTION. FORGIVES MAN WHO SHOT HER.

WIFE SEEKS TO SHIELD HER WOULD-BE MURDERER.

Forgetting His Brutal Treatment, Mrs. Jefferson Larkin Rushes to Aid of Her Wounded Husband—Her Son, Who Saved Her Life, Declares He Will Prosecute His Father.

Although beaten and abused by her husband and finally shot by him, Mrs. Jefferson Larkin yesterday dragged herself from bed and hastened to the bedside of her wounded husband at the California Hospital and there fell weeping into his arms.

The woman's devotion to the man is almost beyond belief. Larkin is a race-track follower and a remittance man. Thursday afternoon he returned from San Francisco, where he had spent the past four months, and proceeded to get drunk. Some one told him that his wife had been untrue to him. Crazed with drink, he went to a pawnshop on First street, bought a cheap revolver and loaded it, staggered to his home at No. 417 Colyton street.

He accused his wife of every vile thing he could lay his tongue to. Later in the evening, when put on an operating table, he revealed those accusations until the influence of the anesthetic quieted him.

In his mad fury he first struck the woman with his fists and then shot her. The bullet struck her a glancing blow in the side of the head and he passed out in the back of the neck without causing anything more serious than a flesh wound.

John Larkin, the sixteen-year-old son of the crazed man, saw the shot fired. He carried his little sister into an adjoining room and rushed to the combat with a baseball bat. Two shots had gone wild. As the man attempted to fire the fourth shot, the boy struck him a blow in the chest, breaking his right collar bone. The boy had been the sole provider for the little family for the past eight months and he was stung and maddened to fury by the action of his father. Larkin attempted to fire at the boy, but he had a wild cat to deal with. Circling about his father, John Larkin thumped him in the thigh and across the back with the baseball bat. The rain of blows on his head and shoulders drove the infuriated man from the side of his wife. As he tried to get out of the house, the boy delivered a stunning blow on the back of his father's head.

Larkin shot himself twice. One bullet went through his side, causing a flesh wound. The other splintered a rib over his heart and raged out through his back. At the Receiving Hospital a laparotomy operation was performed by Surgeons Quint, Garrett and Bonynge. The operation, a most delicate and dangerous one, probably each week making double work for each of these days.

Yesterday morning while Larkin was resting at the California Hospital, Mrs. Larkin, her head swathed in bandages, staggered into the place, and, after kissing her husband affectionately, told him she forgave him and that as soon as he recovered he could return home. Larkin wept a little and, after kissing each other and vowing eternal love and affection, the couple parted.

In strange contrast to the scene at the hospital was the scene at the station, occurring almost at the same hour.

A manly little fellow walked into the station and inquired for the desk sergeant.

"I am John Larkin," he said. "Last night my father shot my mother and I beat him up with a baseball bat. I crowded into that he shot himself and that he is likely to get well. I want to know when he leaves the hospital so that he can have a chance to get away from me. I'll put him where he belongs."

So, unless the moths can persuade her son to relent, there will be a charge of assault with intent to murder placed against Larkin if he recovers.

Monogram Stationery

What is more appropriate for a gift than a box of monogram stationery—a supply of engraved stationery such gifts show a practical knowledge of the needs of the recipient. We are equipped to supply you with die stamped stationery and engraving. Our prices are worthy of your consideration.

$3.25 Holly box containing 1 quire of paper and 1 package of envelopes. Paper die stamped with cypher monogram. We make the die and stamp complete for $3.25.

$4.25 Holly box, containing 48 sheets of paper with envelopes to match, stamped with monogram or address die. Price, including making of die, $4.25.

$5.00 Floral box, containing 2 quires of linen fabric paper with envelopes to match—two tints. Paper stamped with monogram die—assorted colors. Price, including making of die, $5.00.

$7.25 Floral box containing 96 sheets of linen fabric paper with envelopes to match. Paper stamped with monogram die in any desired color. Price, including making of die, $7.25.

Special in Monogram Stationery

60c For 60c you can buy a box of 24 sheets "Cactus Lawn" note paper and 25 envelopes (white or blue), the note paper die stamped with any combination of two letters in gold, silver, blue, red, green or black.

Heretofore a two-letter monogram alone would cost you $1.50. This offer saves that expense.

We know of no better gift than this. It is inexpensive and yet is always acceptable. Order early for holiday delivery.

Please Sit Up And Take Notice

We are prepared for you. We are "onto your curves," so to speak, if you have them. Or, if you're at all angular, like a good many men, we can find the angles.

Our long experience has taught us to provide for the needs of all men—and to make special provision for men who are hard to fit.

We have a fine selection of suits in the new mixtures that are so popular this fall, as well as in blues and blacks. And we can fit you in them.

We have overcoats for you, too—coats that will please you and give you the comfort and satisfaction that only perfect fitting coats can give. Come in and let us show you.

ORDER OF HUSBAND DOESN'T MOVE HER.

Dominga Sagunda,

widow of the United States Marshal as a witness against her lover, who is accused of murdering her husband.

DOMINGA SAGUNDA, the widow of a man who was murdered in the Torrance section, near Thermal, Cal., is a woman who has been brought to the attention of the United States Marshal, who is a witness against her lover, who is accused of murdering her husband.

She was away, and quickly won the affection of Dominga, who frankly says she loves with all the abandon of her race the man who is accused of killing her husband.

Then comes the part of the story which rests on conjecture. It is supposed Sagunda resented the attentions paid to her young wife by Augustine, and warned him to keep away from the little shack.

Augustine evidently became enraged at the sudden termination of his love affair and planned to take revenge upon the wronged husband.

Sagunda disappeared from sight soon after a heated quarrel with his wife's lover. Nothing was thought of it for several days, but finally the chief, Julian Lopez, became suspicious and questioned the wife. She answered evasively that her husband was working at the other side of the valley. The chief pretended to believe her, but summoned two of his most trusted trappers, Francisco Torro and Will Leve. They set out to find the path taken by the missing man. The keen-eyed Indians circled about the cabin and finally came upon a spot where earth had been recently heaped. They dug and finally came upon his body.

Soon after Augustine and Dominga Sagunda were arrested and taken to Riverside. Later the widow was released. She will probably be used as a witness at the murder trial of Augustine. She has never uttered a word in lament for her departed husband. She has violated all the traditions, and is now ostracized from the intimate circle of tribal life. She placidly followed a deputy United States Marshal to the County Jail last night.

Deputy United States Marshal Duran, who visited the scene of the murder last week, states that every vestige of the crime has been obliterated. The house where Sagunda is supposed to have been treacherously attacked by the betrayer of his home was wet with the blood of the murdered man was refilled and quick-growing grasses were planted over it. Rude offerings to the spirits of the other world have been hung about the site of the Sagunda cabin, and none of the tribe ventures near.

NATIONAL BANKS MUST PAY.

Court of Appeals Declares Constitutional Taxation Act Passed by Kentucky Legislature.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

FRANKFORT (Ky.) Nov. 22.—The Court of Appeals today affirmed the consolidated tax case of H. W. Hager, Auditor of State, vs. the First National Bank of Lexington.

The action involved the taxation of every national bank in the State. The court upheld the constitutionality of the act of 1906 requiring the assessment for taxation of par value of the capital stocks, surplus and undivided profits of national banks, and that the monies converted into government bonds is not exempt.

The United States Supreme Court served papers on Federal Judge LaCombe in New York yesterday, the effect of which is to review his appointment of receivers for the New York City Railway Company. The order is based on a claim by judgment of creditors that there was collusion between the petitioning creditors and the company in the appointment of receivers.

WOMEN'S SUICIDE CLUB.

Efforts to Encourage Young Families.

Nov. 22.—Mrs. Clarence of the Little Mothers' league, a novel scheme for the purpose of encouraging the number of births in the city, advocates the establishment of a women's suicide club.

The club might be composed of mothers and mothers-to-be, and its purpose would be to encourage the number of births in the city. It would be a club of mothers who would be encouraged to have children, and it would be a club of mothers who would be encouraged to have children.

The reception was held at the home of Mrs. Abbott.

The bride and groom were the guests of honor.

The wedding was a very quiet affair.

The bride and groom were married at 10 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Frazier.

The bride wore a white gown with a high collar.

STAR PLAYER BREAKS LEG.

RIVERSIDE'S FOOTBALL CAPTAIN HAS BAD ACCIDENT.

While Out Riding, Horse Falls and Fractures Bone of Right Ankle.

Philippine Soldier, at Home for Bride, Tendered Reception for Former Comrades in Arms.

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 22.—Earl McDonald, captain of the Riverside high school football team, fractured his right ankle this morning, and as a result he will be unable to take part in any more scrimmages on the gridiron this season.

As he was one of the star players on the team, his loss will be felt. The accident happened as he was horseback riding. The horse fell, the weight of his body coming down on McDonald's right leg, inflicting a bad fracture of the bone.

RECEPTION FOR VETERANS. Lieut. T. J. Nicholson, who is at home from the Philippines on a furlough, was the guest of honor at an informal reception given by the local committee of the Spanish-American War Veterans Thursday evening at the home of C. F. Pann.

The home was appropriately decorated with flags and bannermen, and the occasion was made an enjoyable one. Lieut. Nicholson was a member of the Thirty-fifth United States Infantry in the Spanish-American War. He was wounded at San Juan, P. R., and returned to the Philippines in 1905, where he has since served as a member of the Philippine Constabulary.

He will claim Miss Olive Horton of Riverside as his bride, and will return soon after to the islands.

BURGULARS AT WORK. Burglars entered the home of W. L. Fry, at No. 190 Mulberry street, last evening, in the absence of the family, and secured as booty three rings, one of which was a small diamond ring, and a watch.

The police believe from the valuable contents of the drawers and purses that the burglars were done by at least two people. Chief of Police Johnson has given orders that every hobo caught in the city be searched in an effort to find the property.

RIVERSIDE NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pollock entertained at a party at their home, at No. 1329 Twelfth street, Wednesday evening.

Fluffy yellow chrysanthemums and small vases were used in the decorations, and the candles were shaded with yellow, matching the color of the flowers.

Plans made for the party by Miss Cecil Ramage.

Domingo Segunda, wife of the Indian who was murdered on the Torres reservation, near Coachella, died last week, and was taken by Deputy Sheriff Evans this morning to Los Angeles, where she was buried.

Augustine has admitted the murder, which was particularly atrocious, and there is little doubt that the latter will be indicted for murder.

Chapman L. McFarland, owner of a grove in the Brown-Nye addition, about two miles from Riverside, and is planned to five-year-old trees.

CORONA. CORONA, Nov. 22.—To promote religious, civic and social interest in the community the men of the Congregational Church have formed a society known as "The Brotherhood," with H. E. Sharp as president, Harry E. Sharp as vice-president, and L. H. Roberts, secretary.

Guy Grizzle is acting as day operator at the Santa Fe depot.

Frank Scoville has sold his five-acre grove on Fullerton avenue to H. D. Williams of Whittier for $10,000.

Mrs. W. H. Jameson, the Misses Platt and Miss Lillian Lewis of the Woman's Improvement Club attended the Southern District Association, visited that lodge Thursday evening.

The local banks have discontinued the custom of keeping open Saturday evenings.

F. H. Roberts, manager of Queen Colony Fruit Exchange, has returned from Syracuse, N. Y., and other eastern cities.

Mrs. C. H. Birdsell is a recent arrival from Cleveland, O., where she visited three months.

John Wilford of Cleveland, O., after a short visit with Rev. Chester Ferris, is planning to return to Corona to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Wilson have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Collins and Mrs. Nan Hawley of Pittsburg, Kan.

C. H. Fowler, evangelist singer of Los Angeles will assist in a series of protracted meetings to begin in the Methodist church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Thompson, Rev. G. B. Cliff and Alma Newton attended the district convention of Epworth League in Orange.

ELISINORE. ELISINORE, Nov. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomas arrived yesterday from Santa Ana to spend several weeks in Elisinore.

Mrs. J. A. Crane and little daughter, Eleanor, left this morning for Santa Monica to spend Thanksgiving week with Mrs. Crane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tooker.

The public schools will close today for a week to allow the teachers to attend the institute to be held next week in Riverside.

Now I Cure Weak Men.

My Fee is Only $10.00 in Any Uncomplicated Case of Men's Ailments

Dr. Miles, The Master Specialist

You Can Pay Me When You Are Cured

A great many people do not seem to understand the difference between the regular practitioner and the medical expert who has devoted his life study to, say, three or four complicated diseases. They seem to be under the impression that any physician cures any disease with equal success. It is an everyday experience to have a patient say, "I have tried nearly every remedy sold by druggists for my trouble," and the inevitable answer is, "No benefit."

Another will say, "I have been treated by several family physicians in my neighborhood, who thought they could cure me, but the results proved otherwise."

I do not appeal especially to the man seeking the cheapest cure in asking such a low fee as $10 for the cure of any uncomplicated case of Male Disorders, but I want to reach all men who object to paying exorbitant fees herebefore charged by specialists. My methods insure quick results, or I would have to charge more for my time. The outcome in every case undertaken in certain, or I could not hold out the proposition to effect the cure before asking the fee.

Varicocele. An average of one man in five has varicocele. Most men that have this dragging, draining weakness are not aware of it until it has wrecked their blood. Varicocele causes congestion of the blood in some of the most vital blood vessels of man. It causes a dull, heavy, listless feeling which is often mistaken for nervous debility or general decline of power.

By my special methods such ailments as Lost Vigor, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Gonorrhea, Stricture, and "Weakness" can be cured perfectly—no need to stay cured.

MY HONEST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS YOU NOTHING. I cheerfully give you the very best opinion, guided by years of successful practice. Men of course will not write if you cannot call, as many cases yield readily to proper home treatment and cure.

Hours—9 a. m. to 9 p. m., Sundays 9 to 12 only.

The Dr. Miles Co. 453 1/2 South Spring Street Los Angeles, Cal.

CERTAIN CURES

Sixteen years of eminently successful practice in our chosen specialty right here in Los Angeles and post-graduate courses of study under the most celebrated men in this country and abroad have given us the skill and experience which are the foundation of our phenomenal success. We do not ask the public to judge us on our newspaper ads. (Any ignoramus can hire an ad. writer to write alluring and attractive ads.) but we do earnestly request ailing men to investigate us and our work. Consultation and examination and diagnosis are free. A friendly talk and a few words of advice will not cost you anything and will not obligate you to take treatment, and may possibly be the means of saving you time and money. Our fees are always reasonable. We make no extra charges for medicine, and never "re-fee" a patient. Our fee may be paid when you are well. We are the only specialists making an absolutely bona fide offer to wait for the fee until the patient is cured. As used by the ordinary advertising specialist the words "Not a Dollar Need Be Paid Until Cured," etc., is simply a piece of bluff. It invariably means extra charges for the medicine which in many cases exceed the original fee for treatment, or the request to pay the fee in advance and it will be returned if the debonair philanthropic specialist fails to effect a cure.

Our Practice is Limited to Men's Diseases Exclusively

For a limited time only, we will cure any simple uncomplicated case free.
